

---

EVOLUTION AND ADOPTION OF ACCOUNTING STANDARDS - THE INDIAN CASE

---

A THESIS SUBMITTED TO THE KARNATAK UNIVERSITY
FOR THE AWARD OF THE DEGREE OF Doctor of Philosophy
IN MANAGEMENT

By
JAMES MATHEW

Research Supervisor
PROF. BHAGWATI PRASAD

KOUSALI INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES
KARNATAK UNIVERSITY, DHARWAD - 580 003
INDIA

---

December, 1993

---

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am profoundly grateful to Professor Bhagwati Prasad who has been more than a Research Supervisor to me. His seemingly simple but penetrating and at times uncomfortable questions have given the much needed clarity and sharpness to my thinking and helped greatly in giving the present shape to this work. Apart from intellectual inputs, he has made significant contributions in my life by inculcating an attitude for hard work, quality and a desire to excel. I am also sincerely grateful to aunty for her motherly affection and support given to me.

I benefitted greatly from my association with Mr. M S Subhas, Faculty Member, KIMS, Karnatak University. I am also thankful to Dr. Chachadi, Faculty Member, KIMS, Karnatak University for his encouragement and interest shown in my work. My thanks are also due to my friend, Mr. Narendranathan who helped me at various stages of this work.

A number of experts were kind enough to extend their help during the course of this work. I am immensely grateful to Professor G.C. Maheshwari, M.S. University, Baroda, Dr. R.N. Goyale, Delhi School of Economics, Delhi, Professor R Narayanaswami, IIM- Bangalore, Professor Krishnakumar, North Eastern Hill University, Professor K Eresi, Bangalore University and Professor Chandraprakash, Mysore University for their useful comments and kind help.

I profusely thank all the Company Executives and chartered accountants who in spite of their busy schedules found time to fill out the questionnaire and give me interview. I am also thankful to the companies which responded to my request for annual reports.

I am also grateful to:

—The office staff at KIMS, Mr. Byadegi, Mr. Mulgundmutt, Mr. Fakirgouder, Mrs. Naik, Mr. Ashok and Mr. Mahadhev who extended their support and help all through.

—Dr. S.C. Bennur and his family for permitting me to use their personal computer at my convenience and for giving me support and encouragement.

—My parents, sisters and brother for their support and encouragement.

—All my friends and relatives and well wishers who continuously enquired about the progress in my work and rejoiced in my success.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that the thesis titled Evolution and Adoption of Accounting Standards - The Indian Case submitted by Mr. James Mathew for the award of Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the Faculty of Management, is based on the research work carried out by him under my guidance and supervision. To the best of my information and belief, it has not been submitted for any other degree or diploma.

Research Supervisor

(Bhagwati Prasad)

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.	Title	Pages
2.0	Accounting standards formulated by ASB	55
3.1	Time given for comments on EDs	86
3.2	Publication lags of different standards	87
3.3	Comparison of ED with standard	90-93
4.1	Official positions of Management respondents	105
4.2	Educational qualifications of Management respondents	105
4.3	Perceptions about financial reporting environment	107
4.4	Attitude towards accounting standards	114
4.5	Perceptions about accounting standard setting environment	120
4.6	Perceptions about the need for adopting some proposed changes in financial reporting	125-126
4.7	Perceptions about comparability of financial statements	135
4.8	Receipts of EDs by respondents	138
4.9	Sources of EDs	138
4.10	Response to EDs	140
4.11	Reasons of non response to EDs	142
4.12	Choice regarding compliance with standards	144
4.13	Preference for standard setters	146

4.14	Views on enforcement of standards	149
5.1	Disclosure of accounting policies	161
5.2	Areas in which accounting policies are disclosed	162
5.3	Firms following lower of cost and net realisable value rule	166
5.4	Cost formulae used	167
5.5	Determination of cost of manufactured inventories	167
5.6	Disclosure of accounting policies on valuation of inventories	168
5.7	Companies publishing statement of changes in financial position	171
5.8	Companies disclosing accounting policy on R&D	182
5.9	Accounting policy on R&D	183
5.10	Disclosure of the R&D costs in the financial statements	184
5.11	Disclosure about fixed assets	191
5.12	Treatment of financial costs	192
5.13	Disclosure of information on revalued assets	194
6.00	Compliance with requirements not statutorily covered	211

CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	1
THE EVOLUTION OF ACCOUNTING STANDARDS	27
THE PROCESS OF ESTABLISHING ACCOUNTING STANDARDS	75
INTEREST GROUPS AND ACCOUNTING STANDARDS	98
ADOPTION OF ACCOUNTING STANDARDS BY COMPANIES	156
SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION	198
BIBLIOGRAPHY	217
APPENDIX A
APPENDIX B	